HE ASKED HER DAD.

Foolish Youth Didn't Count Sweet heart's Mother In.

Iola, Kan., Jan. 9.—In these days of equal suffrage, which has the right to give the daughter away in marriage, the father or the mother? The law has been called on here to settle that Wesley White, 23 years old, a clerk for the Bartlesville Zinc company at Collinsville, Ok., eloped with Miss Net-tle Ferguson of Collinsville. The cou-ple was arrested on a Santa Fe pas-senger train in Iola at the request of Miss Ferguson's mother, who has gone to Claremore to swear out a warrant for White's arrest, charging perjury. In obtaining the marriage license White swore that his bride was of legal age. Miss Ferguson's mother says she is not.

He Didn't Fear Trouble. "I didn't believe there would be any trouble about it." White said to Chief of Police Coffield. "I talked to Mr. Ferguson some time ago, and asked him for his daughter. He gave his consent. We want to the home of our pastor, Dr. Payne, who is also a deputy sheriff. I still felt that it was wrong to stretch Miss Ferguson's age up to the limit, but Dr. Payne said it would be all right, and we were married."
